Mount Shiloh Plans For Centennial Pro.

All members and friends are asked to attend regular worship service this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Following the morning worship pictures will be made of the entire membership and guest. Following the group picture, picture of all officers and auxiliaries of the church will be made. All ushers and choir members are asked to wear their uniforms and robes. Let us all work together in helping to make the centennial celebration a success. Come prepared to be included in the pictures of the church. The photographer will be at the church at 12:20 p.m.

The 39th anniversary of the Mount Shiloh Usher Board was enjoyed by all who attended last Sunday at 3 p.m. The Rev. Raymond Turner and his gospel chorus of the St. Mark Baptist Church were the special guest. The following program was carried out in a very manner with the president, Mrs. Lucinda Lewis serving as mistress of ceremony. A call to order, by mistress of ceremony; opening selection, St. Mark Gospel Chorus; Scripture, Mrs. Margaret Harvey; Prayer, Deacon Calvin Elliott; Music, Guest Chorus; Welcome, Miss Gwen Turner; Response, Elder Thompson; Selection, Guest Chorus; Greetings from local usher boards; Selection, Guest Chorus; Presentation of Speaker, Rev. R. Q. Lawing; Offering; Mrs. Evelyn Carter and Mrs. Annie Harvey; Music, Guest Chorus; Remarks by Mistress of Ceremony and Pastor; Presentation to the guest speaker by Miss Gwen Turner; Closing selection by guest singers; benediction, Rev. Turner.

Promise Land members are asked to cooperate in the change of service for this second to the third Sunday in this month at 7 p.m. at which time a special program will be given by the Gospel Harmonettes of the Jordan Baptist Church. The program is given for the benefit of the church. Please arrange now to be present.

The general public is cordially invited to attend the second anniversary of the Men's Club of the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church on the second Sunday, November 12, at 3 p.m. The Rev. Mack Johnson and his choir will be the special guest.

A large crowd attended the regular service at the Galilee Baptist Church Sunday. The pastor delivered an informative message of "Four Rules For Christian Living". Beautiful music was rendered by the church choirs. Several visitors were present.

A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the funeral of the late Miss Everline Fleshman at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Saturday at 2 p.m. The pastor of the church officiated and delivered the eulogy. Special music was rendered by a mixed choir. Burial was held in the church cemetery. West Funeral Home was in charge.

All officers, members and friends are asked to attend the regular monthly meeting of the NAACP this Monday evening at the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Hixburg, at 7:30 p.m.

Scouts Hold "Court of Honor"

Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 322 Court of Honor met on November 1 at the home of their leader, Mrs. Ellen Armentrout. They discussed the important duties of the Court of Honor. The Court of Honor suggests plans for patrols to discuss and to vote on. It asks for ideas and suggestions from patrols. It makes decisions for the whole troop. And it sets up a kaper chart (job chart) with the troop jobs each patrol will do. The officers at the first Court of Honor meeting for the 1978-'79 year are: front row (left to right) Jo Ann Wooding, Patrol Leader for the Dogwood Patrol; Tracey Trent, Patrol Leader for the Wild Rose patrol; Kelly Paulette, Patrol Leader for the Bluebird patrol; Margie Lockner, Assistant Troop Treasurer; back row, Kelly Neville, Troop Scribe; and Jeannice Bartelt, Troop Treasurer. Refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Career Guidance Group at AMS

Pictured here is a group of 7th grade students who plan to enter a career in transportaiton. These students have discussed the pros and cons of a career in transportation, taken a work experience test, and taken a tour of H. H. Moore's Trucking Company.

From left to right we have Samuel Thornton, Vic Meadows (7th grade counselor), John Garrett, Timmy Almond, John Scruggs, and Kenneth Mayberry. Not pictured due to illness was John Goin. We feel that the highlight of this career gorup was our trip to H. H. Moore's and we would like to thank the trucking company for their kindness to us on our visit.

Following the performance a social hour was enjoyed.

4-H CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Humphries 4-H Club had their second meeting in October. We played a game called "Cat and Mouse". We also picked our projects. Mr. Sweet showed us slides from last year's Share-the-Fun. We were given Share-the-Fun forms to fill out.

We filled out our projects on our enrollment cards. We have some new projects available this year. Alex Almond led us in the American Pledge and Cheryl Austin led us in the 4-H pledge. The meeting was adjourned by Sheila Mullins.

KAWAI FOR THE DEMANDING PERFORMER
20 to 25% OFF
A small Steinway grand piano of the highest quality will cost about $7,700 new. Rebuilt, if you can find one (and it isn't easy) it could cost almost that much. A piano that has virtually equal quality, the Kawai, can be bought for about $5,000. Kawai is just becoming known in the U.S. It has a fine, luminous tone, reminiscent of a Viennese or German piano, yet it is a tone of full brilliance and depth when required. Its action is responsive and quick.

November's Member-Of-The-Month

The Member-of-the-Month for November is Cheryl Elliott. Cheryl is the president of the Appomattox County Senior Chapter Future Homemakers of America.

She has been an active member in Home Economics and the Future Homemakers of America for five years. Cheryl has worked on the Fair Booth committee and attended all the Fair Booth committee meetings. She was on the Homecoming Float committee and worked diligently getting it ready for the parade and she has also participated on the Welfare committee. Cheryl entered clothing in the Five County Fair and attended FFA-FHA Camp and entered in the fashion show and won first place. She has received her state degree and has attended all executive and club meetings. She helped give the party for the Special Education Class and has sold flavoring.

Cheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elliott of Concord. Congratulations Cheryl, and thanks for all of the time you have willingly devoted to FHA.
